

INTERNATIONAL FOOD & AGRIBUSINESS

The world is facing an immense challenge – feeding more people in a rapidly changing world. Do you want to be part of the solution? Then best you join International Food & Agribusiness!

Our mission at the International Food & Agribusiness programme at HAS University of Applied Science, is to inspire you to become a game-changer in global food and agri systems. Together with young professionals from across the globe, you gain relevant knowledge of the complex and interesting food and agricultural business industry, but you also develop and apply the necessary business and personal skills to address the latest challenges and opportunities facing sustainable food and agri systems worldwide.

CAN YOU BE GLOBALLY SUCCESSFUL WITH SWEET POTATOES FROM GHANA?

THE PEOPLE POTATOE PROFIT CHALLENGE OF WIEP AND MIKE

The first container ever of Ghanaian sweet potatoes for Europe may well arrive in June. This is partially an achievement of Wiep (21) and Mike (27). The 2 students of International Food & Agribusiness went to Africa on behalf of a German entrepreneur, to assess the opportunities for the sweet potato.
